

Nigeria solar container lithium battery factory operates

Overview

Earlier this month, China's Avatar New Energy Materials officially launched Nigeria's largest lithium processing plant in Nasarawa State, located in the centre of the country. President Tinubu made the remarks on Friday in Abuja during a meeting with Governor. The Federal Government has unveiled plans to localise the production of lithium batteries and solar components as part of efforts to boost youth skills development and strengthen Nigeria's renewable energy ecosystem. From powering electric vehicles to storing solar energy in homes and industries, the demand for battery technologies;especially lithium-ion;is soaring.
