

World staff solar container sorting

POWER UP INDOORS&OUTDOORS

Overview

In a collaboration, everwave and STADLER Anlagenbau GmbH have pioneered the development and construction of SortX, a mobile sorting container designed specifically to combat plastic pollution in rivers. SortX weighs just 6 tons, making it light enough for sea transport and deployable in areas previously considered too remote for effective waste processing. Experience with all window covering types, including roller shades, blinds, shutters, motorization.
